

REACH COOLING GROUP

AIR CONDITIONING PARTS WARRANTY

Reach International Inc. warrants its parts to be free of defects in material or workmanship for a period of one year from the date of sale to the retail user and for six months for commercial, fleet or off highway use vehicles.

This warranty does not cover labor or consequential damage claims of any kind.

The use and proper levels of O.E. quality lubricants and R134A refrigerant and flush solvent is required.

All work must be performed by a certified A/C repair technician.

All compressor replacements must also include replacement of the drier/accumulator and orifice tube if so equipped.

The following conditions will not be covered under warranty.

- Damage caused by improperly cleaned systems creating system blockages resulting in compressor oil starvation.
- Damage caused by excessive system pressures due to faulty engine cooling systems, cooling fans, deteriorated or blocked condensers, electrical/safety switches and overcharging.
- Damage caused by attempting to engage the compressor without pre-lubricating by hand (ten turns).
- Damage caused by the use of incorrect oil viscosity, type of oil, under-lubricating, over-lubricating, undercharging, overcharging, and excessive moisture in the system.
- Damage caused by the use of Refrigerants or lubricants other than that specified by the vehicle manufacturer.
- External condenser corrosion due to salt air corrosion in coastal areas.
- Physical damage due to collisions, accidents, abusive handling or shipping.
- Stripped threads on any component such as on compressor mounting studs or hose connections.

The following actions will immediately void product warranty

- Use for applications other than what the unit was specifically designed for.
- Repair, disassembly or modifications of any kind.
- Use in racing applications.
- New driers left uncapped.

The failed part and a copy of the original purchase receipt must be presented with all claims to Reach International with all transportation expenses prepaid before any warranty credit can be issued.

Reach International will not assume responsibility for loss of warranty items in transit while in the possession of the freight carrier.

Reach International's sole liability to the original retail purchaser shall be limited to the repair or replacement of the defective part at our discretion after inspection is complete and if part is found to be defective only as a result of materials or workmanship.
